

Trek Curriculum Map:

Rural Program

Year 1

Pre-Clerkship

(Plains)

Admissions		Jul	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Secondary Application: Rural Program Essay• Zoom with Rural Program Manager, SOM Admissions Interview• SOM and Rural Program Admissions Offers	Rural Program Orientation	First Course	Foundational Principles	Traverse 1	Hematologic & Lymphatic Systems	Gastrointestinal System	Traverse 2	Pulmonary & Cardiovascular System		Renal & Urinary Systems	Traverse 3	Nervous System	Musculoskeletal & Integumentary Systems		Mind & Behavior	Traverse 4	Endocrine & Metabolic Systems	Reproductive System & Life Cycle	Traverse 5
FMMD-5010: Rural Program Seminars and Workshops

Year 2

Clerkship

(Foothills)

Discovery/ Summer Break	Foothills Basecamp	IDPT-7012: Rural Longitudinal Integrated Clerkship (LIC)		7 LIC Specialties: Internal Medicine, Pediatrics, Obstetrics/Gynecology, Emergency Medicine, Psychiatry, Surgery, Family Medicine
----------------------------	-----------------------	--	--	---

Year 3

Post-Clerkship

(Alpine)

LICs	3 Advanced Science Courses (ASC): Advanced Neurosciences, Advanced Immunology, Cardiology Connections	USMLE Step 1 Prep & Test		Alpine Base-camp	Trail Immersions	Trail Distributed Work	*FMMD-8031: Rural Health Policy	*Rural Clinical Electives (FMMD-8032, FMMD-8034)	Acting Internships	Critical Care	Alpine Coursework
Assist with First Year Rural Program Seminars and Workshops* Career Counseling*

Year 4

Post-Clerkship

(Alpine/Summit)

Alpine Acting Internships, Aways, Research, Electives, Longitudinal Courses		Additional Alpine Coursework	Residency Match Day	Summit Transition to Residency Basecamp, Advanced Electives	Graduation
Assist with First Year Rural Program Seminars and Workshops* Career Counseling*

- MS1
- MS2
- MS3
- MS4

- These elements (*) are not required, but are optional for interested Rural Program students.
- The diagram of the Alpine year is meant to serve as a sample student schedule. The order of the courses taken during the Alpine year and the course lengths will vary by student.
- After graduation, Rural Program students can expect to participate in annual surveys, career counseling, and offering practice site advice, and may also have the option to become a Rural Program clinical preceptor.